WAYS CHILDREN LEARAN

INCIDENTAL LEATENING

Child learns in an unplanned way by observing and understanding the results of accidental actions.

IMITATIVE LEATENING

The child learns skills and behaviors by watching and mimicking others.

Watching You by Rodney Atkins

TRIAL & FREDOR

The child tries several solutions to a problem before finding one that works.

DIRECTED LEARNING

The child is taught a skill or behavior in either a formal or informal way.

Teaching a child to tie their shoe laces

