

Caring For a Sick Child

Information/Question	Response
How do you know when a child is not feeling well? What are some signs? 	Your ideas: Notes:
What are these?
How many different ways can you take a child's temperature?
What are the PROS & CONS of each type? Use this QR Code to access the website. 	Use the assigned chart for this activity.  Which thermometer would you choose and why?

How do you read an oral (glass) thermometer? Draw and label the diagram in the section to the right.

Practice Reading the following temperature readings.

Write the answers in the box.

What is the type of doctor who specializes in children and their illnesses and when should you call them?

After visiting the doctor you may have to use these devices. What are they?

Your Answer:

Categories:

Is it okay to use this method?

Explain:

Medical Answer:

Scan the following QR code to access an important video.

Summarize the Video:

Practice this important skill on giving children medicines.

Complete the worksheet using the medicine chart provided to you by your teacher.

Scan the QR Code to access the video on Storing Medicines Safely and complete the assignment to the right.

Write down the safety tips as they are presented in the video and at the end identify where you can get more information.

