

Families throughout the Decades Magazine Project

You are a journalist, and your team of writers, have been given the task of creating a historical magazine issue that highlights the family during a specific decade. Your edition of this magazine should reflect the decade you are representing in look, style, price, advertisements and articles. Your deadline is _____ and must include the following:

- A cover (title, date, cost, pictures, headlines)
- An advertisement (choose an item that the family during that decade would have used or needed in their daily life—especially one that made life easier for them)
- A current event article (write a news article about something big that happened or was discovered that would have impacted the family in a social, financial, or educational way; include appropriate picture(s))
- Incorporate an article about the latest fashions for teens during that era (pictures, descriptions, etc. for both genders)
- Incorporate an article describing the family dinner table (types/examples of meals, importance of the family eating together, recipes, etc.; include an appropriate picture)
- Somehow incorporate daily lifestyle (jobs of the men, jobs of the women, activities children, etc.)
- 3+ Resources Cited and Hyperlinked when possible
