

- Example C

7. What should you do if baby is consistently crying every time you feed them?

If your group has extra time, practice holding the Real Care baby in one of the positions described in the video and “feed” them a bottle.