

Key

What Month am I?

Using all of the Pregnancy Towers in the room, identify the month that each of the following represents.

Month	Characteristic	Month	Characteristic
5	Teeth buds form	4	Pregnancy begins to show
2	Frequent urination	1	Blastocyst
3	Size of small melon (3-4")	8	Pressure on ribs/organs
6	Eyebrows formed	9	Baby considered full term
7	Forceful kicking/moving felt	9	Nesting instincts appear
6	Belly=Basketball	8	Head down in fetal position
7	Nervous system grows	1	Fatigue begins
3	All organs present	4	Weighs approximately 4 oz.
2	Brain developing	5	Uterus=Cantaloupe
7	Fat is depositing under skin	9	Protective hair sheds
6	Vocal cord function	8	Movement in womb slows
1	Sex of the child is decided	4	Heartburn possible
5	Pregnancy brain may appear	3	Moving limbs
2	Breast Tenderness	1	Smaller than rice grain
2	Heart is beats/lungs formed	4	Quickening/Butterflies occur
5	Ultrasound shows gender	6	Itchy belly may occur
9	Brain has a growth spurt	8	Body systems keep developing
9	Lightening occurs	7	Braxton Hicks Contractions start
1	Morning sickness begins	4	Heartbeat can be heard
3	Fully developed, not viable	7	Can see, hear, and taste
8	1 lb. per week weight gain	9	18-21 inches
4	Hormones stabilize	2	All limbs developed
4	Urge to suck appears	8	Weighs approximately 5 lbs.