

First Aid Scenario Card

Child has a nose bleed

You and the child are playing with toys. The child looks up and you notice blood dripping from his nose, what do you do?

First Aid Scenario Card

Child gets burned

You are boiling water for Mac N'Cheese. The handle to the pot is pointed out. The child comes running through the kitchen and knocks the pot and the boiling water spills on the child. What do you do?

First Aid Scenario Card

Child has a broken bone

You and the child are playing outside on the slide. The child falls off of the top of the slide and lands on the ground. You notice the child's leg is bent funny and the child is screaming in pain. What do you do?

First Aid Scenario Card

Child gets stung by a bee.

You and the child are playing outside. The child starts screaming and holding their arm. Their arm is red and getting swollen. The child is deathly allergic to bee stings and has an epi-pen. What do you do?

First Aid Scenario Card

Child has a scrape and is bleeding.

The child is running outside and falls on the sidewalk. Both knees are scraped and bleeding. What do you do?

First Aid Scenario Card

Child has fallen and hit their head.

The child is climbing a tree when all of a sudden; they lose their grip and fall. They hit their head really hard when they reach the ground. What do you do?