

The Two Faces of Mother Bio-Poems

The Good Mother vs The Evil
Mother

Kim Graybill/FamilyConsumerSciences.com

Brainstorm ideas for the Good Mother Bio-Poem utilizing Chapter 2 of the novel.

First Line _____ GOOD _____

Adjectives to describe mother (4)	Who enjoys...(2)	Who feels...(2)	Who wonders...(2)
Who fears...(2)	Who cares about...(2)	Who is able to...(2)	Who wishes...(2)

Last Line _____ MOTHER _____

Brainstorm ideas for the Evil Mother Bio-Poem utilizing Chapters 1,3 &4 only of the novel.

First Line _____EVIL_____

Adjectives to describe mother (4)	Who enjoys...(2)	Who feels...(2)	Who wonders...(2)
Who fears...(2)	Who cares about...(2)	Who is able to...(2)	Who wishes...(2)

Last Line _____MOTHER_____

Type both of your BIO-POEMS side by side in either a Google Document or Google Slide. Use a template or set up columns if necessary!

Include one NEW image that illustrates both sides of mother like the one I used on the TITLE slide. Be creative! The poems do not need to rhyme, but can if you so desire!

See the sample template for poem set up. Submit in Google Classroom by the due date!

Sample Layout

Good for Poem #1 AND Evil for Poem #2

4 Adjectives that describe person

Who enjoys (2 things)

Who feels (2 emotions)

Who wonders (2 things, questions, ideas, etc.)

Who fears (2 things)

Who cares about (2 things, people, etc.)

Who is able to (2 do, commit, perform, hide, etc.)

Who wishes (2 outcomes, tangible/intangible things)

Mother